Our winter adventure world at the frozen Hinterstockensee with the igloo village lies in an idyllic winter setting, far away from the routines and frenetic activities of daily life. It is the ideal setting for all manner of company, client and group events and activities.

Outdoor activities and team events

Around the adventure world at the frozen Hinterstockensee, a panoply of outdoor team activities like ice fishing, snow tubing, snowshoe trekking or winter hiking bring about a sense of reinvigoration and allow participants to spend sociable times together.

Whether at the the snowbar "Hinterstockensee" or on the terrace of the Panorama Restaurant on the summit of the Stockhorn at 2139 metres a.s.l., every group will enjoy carving ice sculptures. It's tremendous fun and also encourages creativity.

Gastronomy

During your stay, our Stockhorn gastronomy will pamper you with an extensive selection of culinary treats.

Aperitifs in a sensuous ambience

Clink glasses in a unique setting! Enjoy an winter aperitif in the winter adventure world at the frozen Hinterstockensee, our sunset aperitif on the terrace of the Panorama Restaurant on the summit of the Stockhorn or the grotto aperitif in the rock cave near the Panorama Platform. You'll find the perfect ambience for your event here.

Dinner with culinary highlights

The range of culinary delights prepared by our chef leaves no wishes unfulfilled!

The Stockhorn Panorama Restaurant with its 180 seats at 2139 metres a.s.l. offers a unique ambience and stunning vistas across the snow-covered mountainscape.

Enjoy a fine fondue or a hearty raclette in our rustic Restaurant Chrindi at the middle station. We'll also be delighted to pamper you with a cosy fondue in the igloo-village.
